Detail

We're all falling/flying down into the deep void after having leapt off of the cat walks, and we are strung out at various depths.

Luna crashes through the windshield of a shuttlecraft and is severely injured, he lays unconscious as people are engaged in a vicious fight with the Pseudopod all around him.

Kryssle lands safely on top of the ship along with Sky Blue.

Hans flies past the ship and is headed at breakneck speed toward the bottom of the void. He kills a needle creature and barely misses a second creature.

Talon kills the other needle creature, and continues downward in the void.

Kryssle climbs into the shuttlecraft to save Luna. After helping heal him, she starts to dance wildly about the cabin to distract the Pseudopod attacking Sky Blue on the outside of the ship. The wild dancing combined with the lights and shadows of combat, draw the other needle creatures to land on the ship.

Ahead of Talon is a ship on fire with lots of people in it. He manages to go around the ship slowly but sees a flock of needle creatures charging after him.

Hans tries to go past the ship as quickly as possible, but is too close as the ship explodes, he takes significant fire damage.

Sky Blue is on top of the shuttlecraft and is kicking ass against the Pseudopod. Suddenly her tongue extends out for several feet, striking a Pseudopod and sucking it down. With a happy smile she starts to bulk up! We're all slightly afraid and impressed.

Luna blast one of the Pseudopod after being slightly healed by Kryssle.

Kryssle sees the Pseudopod and some of the needle creatures on top of the shuttlecraft. She is very concerned for Sky Blue! She moves out of the ship to stand on the top of the ship with Sky Blue. Kryssle goes to battle with her scythe and does slight damage on the Pseudopod.

Talon cast a spell of "sanctuary" and the needle creatures fly past.

Hans has taken significant damage from the explosion, but is still functioning. He can see lots of wreckage falling with him toward the bottom of the void.

Talon is narrowly missed by another one of the needle creatures.

Kryssle is now fighting outside the ship and tries to save Sky Blue, although Sky Blue appears to be doing a pretty good job of kicking ass all by herself. Kryssle kills one of the needle creatures.

Talon is at the bottom of the void. Hans avoids other parts of the burning ship wreckage and lands safely at the bottom of the shaft. As he lands he sees a needle creature diving toward Talon. Hans kills the creature with a crossbow.

Luna gets the computer on the ship working in order to see what is still operational. He is planning with the other survivors in the shuttlecraft to pilot the ship to the bottom of the shaft where he has discovered a working elevator. Kryssle and Sky Blue both get inside the ship and fly down to the bottom to meet with Talon and Hans.

Everyone's finally landed at the bottom of the shaft safely. We're now approaching the working elevator.
